 Please note. Cast members are responsible for providing their own costumes and/or any rental fees incurred. These costumes/fees will be kept minimal as possible. *****

Conflicts/Attendance Policy

- Please review the rehearsal schedule on the audition page of gladstonetip.com and check for any possible conflicts. Those conflicts must be written on your audition information form.
- Conflicts can/will keep you from being cast in the shows. We have a short rehearsal schedule and attendance is mandatory.
- Conflicts brought to the director's attention after casting may result in your removal from the show or scenes from the show blocked the rehearsal/s you miss.
- After casting if you are unable to accept your role or if any conflicts arise, you must call us as soon as possible so the directors can replace or adjust roles/scenes as needed.

I have read and understand Gladstone Theatre in the Park's Attendance policy. I understand that conflicts not listed on my audition form can result in my removal from the show or scenes blocked at the rehearsal I miss. The Parks & Recreation Department frequently takes photographs and videotapes of events such as Theatre In The Park. These photographs and videotapes are used for Parks and Recreation Department publications. They are used at the department's discretion and become its sole property.
